

Curriculum Vitae
William L. Hollis, D.V.M.

PO Box 220

Carthage, IL 62321-1218

Phone: (217) 357-2811 – Fax: (217) 357-6665

hollis@hogvet.com

Professional Experience:

- Partner – Professional Swine Management, LLC – (2000 to present)
- Partner – Carthage Veterinary Service, Ltd. - (1998 to present)
- Veterinarian - Carthage Veterinary Service, Ltd. – (1996 to present)
- Administrative Assistantship – University of Illinois, College of Veterinary Medicine – CEPS (1994-1996)
- Research Assistantship – Veterinary Biosciences (1991-1993)

Education:

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine
University of Illinois

Bachelor of Science in Agriculture
University of Illinois

Professional Licenses:

- Licensed to practice veterinary medicine in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Minnesota, Missouri, and Ohio

Professional Organization Membership and Recognitions:

- Jonathan Baldwin Turner, Agriculture Scholarship (1987-1992)
- American Association of Swine Veterinarians
- American Veterinary Medical Association House of Delegates Representative of the American Association of Swine Veterinarians
- Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association
- National Pork Board Operation Main Street 1.0 and 2.0 Speaker

Swine Education Projects:

- Pfizer Animal Health and Carthage Veterinary Service, P's in a Pod Episode 2 – SIV Zoonotic Potential, 2009
- Pfizer Animal Health and Carthage Veterinary Service, P's in a Pod Episode 4 – Weaned Pig Marketing Agreements (Past, Present, and Future), 2009

Publications:

- Hollis, William L., 10 Ways to Control Costs, National Hog Farmer, 2008
- Hollis, William L., Farrowing Improvement – Extending Lactation Length, National Hog Farmer, Spring Blueprint Article, 2005
- Hollis, William L., Joseph F. Connor, Keith R. Erlandson, Revisiting Weaning Age Trends, Dynamics, National Hog Farmer Blueprint, October 15, 2005.
- Hollis, William L., Prevention vs. Treatment of Disease, National Hog Farmer, 2003

- Hollis, William L., Sow Farm Disease Elimination – PRRS, National Hog Farmer, Spring Blueprint Article, 2003

Educational Presentations and Programs:

- Presenter to the 2009 Leman Swine Conference "Practitioner's Approach to Neonatal diarrhea"
- Presenter to the 2009 AASV Annual Meeting "Gilt Development Strategies for Excellence"
- Presenter to the 2008 ISU Swine Disease Conference Presentation "Economic Evaluation Techniques to Support Health Recommendations"
- Presenter to the 2008 18th Annual Swine Health and Production Conference "Controlling Costs: The Perfect 10"
- Presenter to the 2007 Leman Swine Conference "Optimization in Farrowing Site Production"
- Presenter to the 2007 AASV Annual Meeting "Major diseases that impact ADG and how to control them"
- Presenter to the 2006 AASV Annual Meeting "Parity segregation: A producer's tool for disease elimination"
- Presenter to the 2006 16th Annual Swine Health and Production Conference "The Front Nine of Disease Management"
- Presenter to the 2006 Midwest Swine Nutrition Conference "Will Nutrition and Management Stop Bowel Syndrome? A Veterinarian's Perspective"
- Presenter to the 2006 National Pork Industry Conference "Auto sort Technology – A Bright Future?"
- Presenter to the 2006 PIC Canada Symposium "Economic Impact & Field Experience with PCVAD"
- Presenter to the 2005 Leman Swine Conference "Field experiences in post-weaning diarrhea and specific disease treatments"
- Presenter to the 2005 AASV Annual Meeting "Implementation of Parity Segregation in Production Systems"
- Presenter to the 2004 AASV Annual Meeting "A system analysis and how I prioritize the findings"
- Presenter to the 2004 14th Annual Swine Health and Production Conference "Managing Finishing Barns: SOPs that Produce"
- Presenter to the 2004 Land O'Lakes MiniVersity "Swine Production Training – Nursery Grow Finish SOP's"
- Presenter to the 2004 85th University of Illinois's Annual Fall Conference "Disease Identification, Control and Prevention in the Growing Pig"
- Presenter to the 2004 85th University of Illinois's Annual Fall Conference "Impact of Disease Control Measures on Reproductive Efficiency of the Breeding Herd"
- Presenter to the 2004 85th University of Illinois's Annual Fall Conference "What our Clients Want and Need From Their Pig Vet"
- Presenter to the 2004 76th Western Veterinary Conference "Growing Pigs: Health & Performance Monitoring"
- Presenter to the 2004 76th Western Veterinary Conference "Competitive Production Strategies for Sustainable Profits"

- Presenter to the 2004 76th Western Veterinary Conference “Real-time Ultrasound Management of Swine Breeding”
- Presenter to the 2003 13th Annual Swine Health and Production Conference “Health and Management Practices for Grow-Finish Production”
- Presenter to the 2003 AASV Annual Meeting “What’s in your Toolbox?”
- Presenter to the 2002 AASV Annual Meeting “Session Leader for Food Safety Session”
- Presenter to the 2002 12th Annual Swine Health and Production Conference “PRRS Management Techniques”
- Presenter to the 2002 FDA “Clinical Presentation of Mycoplasma Pneumonia in Growing Pigs”
- Presenter to the 2002 Hancock County Pork Producers “Pork Quality Assurance”
- Presenter to the 2002 LOL Sales Consultants Fall Regional Training Meeting “LOL Nursery Pig Performance Training”
- Presenter to the 2000 National Pork Producers Council Competitive Seminars
- Presenter to the 2000 Upjohn Animal Health Swine Technical Service Meeting
- “Vasectomy for the Heat Check Boar”

Teaching Experience:

- Advanced Swine Rotation for the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine – 2008 – Coordinator at Carthage Veterinary Service